$2500 College Scholarships for Dyslexic Students

The Dyslexic Advantage Karina Eide Memorial Scholarship Program will award scholarships of $2500 to sixteen dyslexic students who are currently enrolled in college, university, or vocational school. The purpose of these awards is to identify and support the development of dyslexic students with outstanding future potential who may not be competitive for other scholarships that are based on grades or test scores. Scholarship funds are to be used to pay tuition or other school-related expenses.

All applicants must have successfully completed at least one academic term in their current school by February 1, 2016, and must demonstrate financial need. Applicants must also show personal dedication to building and using their talents, and have at least one more year left in school.

Applications are limited to 300 Candidates, so students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.
